

Dalian Municipal Epidemic Prevention & Control Command for Pneumonia Caused by the Novel Coronavirus

Decree No.4

Feb 3, 2020

In order to further strengthen the epidemic prevention and control of pneumonia caused by novel coronavirus infection in the city, ensure the health and life safety of the people in the city, and maintain public order, according to the emergency response law of the People's Republic of China and other relevant laws and regulations and the requirements of national and provincial epidemic prevention and control work, after research and study, the city's Epidemic Prevention & Control Command for Pneumonia Caused by the Novel Coronavirus decides to issue the following order,

1. Actively cooperate with relevant government departments to execute epidemic investigation and control. All personnel entering the city through airport, railway station, port and highway must fill in the health declaration form of Dalian personnel truthfully. Those who do not cooperate or make false statement or refuse to fill in the form shall be dealt with by the public security department in accordance with the law.

2. Strengthen the management of epidemic prevention and control. From the date of arrival in Dalian, all the returnees shall be self-isolated at home for 14 days and report to community and organization for supervision. During the self isolation period, in case of abnormal conditions such as fever, one shall report to his/her community and organization in time, take effective protective measures, and sent to the local fever clinic by 120 ambulance in time.

3. Any of the following acts shall be dealt with seriously by the public security and other relevant departments according to law.

1) Using epidemic situation to create or spread rumors, incite the division of the country, destructing national unity, subverting state power or overthrowing the socialist system;

2) Fabricating terrorist information related to epidemic situation, or knowingly spreading such terrorist information deliberately, seriously disturbing social order;

3) Fabricating and disseminating false information related to epidemic situation or knowingly spreading it on internet or other media;

4) Spreading rumors, falsely reporting dangerous situation, epidemic situation, making trouble by taking advantage of the opportunity, disturbing public knowledge, discriminating against all the people from other places, such as Hubei (Wuhan) people, or deliberately disturbing public order by other means;

5) Refusing or obstructing the preventive and control measures such as epidemic prevention, quarantine, compulsory isolation, detention, on-site inspection, isolation and treatment, closure of epidemic areas and hospitals taken by medical aid personnel, epidemic prevention and epidemic prevention personnel, police personnel and staff of other relevant departments for the prevention, control and elimination of infectious diseases;

6) Refusing to implement the prevention and control measures put forward by the health and epidemic prevention agencies in accordance with the law on prevention and control of infectious diseases for the confirmed or suspected patients with pneumonia caused by the novel coronavirus;

7) The confirmed or suspected patients with pneumonia caused by the novel coronavirus deliberately spread the virus to unspecified persons in public places or intentionally spread the virus through other means or places to endanger public safety;

8) Refusing to implement the decisions, orders, regulations and requirements made by the government and relevant departments according to law in case of emergency;

9) Refusing to obey the prevention and control measures taken by the police officers on spot, hindering the police officers from performing their duties according to law, and forcibly rushing into the cordon and cordon area set by the public security organs;

10) Deliberately blocking road traffic without approval, impeding the passage of military vehicles, police vehicles, ambulances, official vehicles and certified vehicles for the transportation of epidemic prevention materials, and disturbing normal traffic order;

11) Stealing, swindling, looting, robbing, destroying, occupying, misappropriating materials and equipment related to epidemic prevention and rescue;

12) Illegal practice of medicine without the qualification of a doctor, causing serious circumstances such as delayed diagnosis and treatment or cross infection of confirmed or suspected patients with pneumonia caused by the novel coronavirus;

13) Those who disrupt the work of epidemic prevention and control, such as joining in, instigating, organizing unlawful assembly, gatherings, rioting, etc;

14) Illegally killing or trading wild animals and wild animals under special state and local protection and their products.

4. The majority of operators should fulfill their social responsibilities and operate in good faith. The market supervision and other relevant departments will crack down on the illegal and illegal business activities in accordance with the law and severely punish them.

1) It is strictly prohibited to mark prices clearly, cheat in prices, collude in price increases, bid up prices, spread price increase information, hoarding and other illegal acts;

2) It is strictly prohibited to produce and sell medicines, medical protective masks, protective clothing and "three no" products for epidemic situation, and to counterfeit and confuse illegal acts;

3) It is strictly prohibited to trade live livestock and poultry in any form in the agricultural products market;

4) It is strictly prohibited to publish false and illegal advertisements containing the contents of prevention, treatment, cure and prescriptions of pneumonia caused by the novel coronavirus and epidemic situation .

Dalian Municipal Epidemic Prevention & Control Command for Peumonia Caused by the Novel Coronavirus